DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings were received on 1/3/2007. These drawings are not acceptable.

New corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in this application because there are new matter issues with the replacement drawing sheet. There is no disclosure in the claims of the specification for the valve sleeve to look exactly as it does in the corrected drawings. For example, along with many other variations in the shape of the valve sleeve, the change in thickness could be more drastic, the transition from the thicker section to the thinner section does not need to be tapered, and the thicker section could be longer than it appears in the figure. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the thickness of the valve sleeve varying across its axial direction and decreasing in a discharge direction of the fuel, of claim 8, must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 8, 10, 12 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 12, it is unclear if the supply pipe mentioned in line 2 of the claim is the same supply pipe mentioned in the second to last line of claim 8. If they are in fact the same supply pipe, how could the same supply pipe be both inserted into the valve sleeve and be integrally formed with the valve sleeve at the same time?

Claim 8 recites the limitation "heaver design" in the last line of the claim. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 8, 10, 12 and 14, as best understood, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kobayashi et al (US 2002/0185555).

Kobayashi et al shows a fuel injector (1) comprising; a valve needle (7a) an armature (7c) forming an axially movable valve port together with the valve needle, a restoring spring (9) acting upon the armature, a magnetic coil (11) cooperating with the armature, a valve-seat body (5b), a valve closure member (7b) which forms a sealing seat with the valve seat body and a valve sleeve (2) surrounding the armature and the valve needle, a wall thickness of the valve sleeve varying across its axial direction (fig

4), wherein the wall the wall thickness of the valve sleeve decreases in a discharge direction of a fuel (figure 4), wherein a radial cross section of the valve sleeve decreases between an inflow-side region and a discharge-side region on a color (figure 4) and wherein a supply pipe (8) is inserted into the valve sleeve in the inflow-side region.

Regarding claim 10, as best understood, the thickness of the valve sleeve is about .3 to .6 mm in an inflow-side region (paragraph 0038).

Regarding claim 12, as best understood, a supply pipe is formed integral to the valve sleeve on the inflow side region (the upper portion of the valve sleeve of figure 4).

Regarding claim 14, as best understood, the thickness of the valve sleeve is about .2 to .5 mm in a discharge-side region (paragraph 0035).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 8, 10, 12 and 14 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
